

Rocky Mountain Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Conference

Vail, Colorado
October 9 & 10, 2009

Location: Sun Up Room, Vail Marriott Mountain Resort & Spa

Friday Afternoon, October 9:

- 12:00-12:30 Elizabeth R. McVicker, Metropolitan State College of Denver, “High Stakes for Stakeholders: Resolving Disputes in Pursuit of a Sustainable Future of Water Supply”
- 12:30-1:00 Corey Ciocchetti, University of Denver, “The Efficient Professor”
- 1:00-1:30 Ronald L. Taylor, Metropolitan State College of Denver, Elizabeth R. McVicker, Metropolitan State College of Denver, & Whitney Traylor, Metropolitan State College of Denver, “The Academic and Legal Challenges Posed by Financial Exigency in Higher Education”
- 1:30-2:00 Thomas Brierton, University of the Pacific, Peter Bowal, University of Calgary & Joseph B. Thuesen, University of the Pacific, “Protecting the Child Performers Pocketbook from the Parents: Looking Forward to the Next 70 Years Under Coogan’s Law”
- 2:00-2:30 Robert Sprague, University of Wyoming, “Cloud Privacy: Information Privacy Management Within Cloud Computing”
- 2:30-3:00 Break
- 3:00-3:30 Stanley A. Leasure, Missouri State University, “Cash Justice and the Rule of Law: Post-Caperton Financing of Judicial Elections”
- 3:30-4:00 J. Royce Fichtner, Drake University, “The International Growth of Mandatory Audit Committees”
- 4:00-4:30 Corey Ciocchetti, University of Denver, “Employee Monitoring and Its Implications on Workplace Morale”
- 4:30-5:00 Konrad Lee, Utah State University, Chad Albrecht, Utah State University, & Scott DuHadway, Utah State University, “Teaching Ethical Leadership and International Law through Classroom Case Study: South Korean Chaebols”
- 5:00-5:30 RMALSB Business Meeting
- 5:30-7:30 Reception

Cengage Learning and EthicsGame have made valuable contributions to subsidize our conference. Please take a moment to visit with their representatives to learn about their product offerings.

Rocky Mountain Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Conference

Vail, Colorado

October 9 & 10, 2009

Saturday Morning, October 10:

- 8:30-9:00 Kevin O'Brien, University of Denver, "Nacchio's Tenth Circuit Reversal of His Criminal Sentence under the Federal Sentencing Guidelines"
- 9:00- 9:30 John Holcomb, University of Denver, "Legal Aspects of Government Bailouts: Auto and Financial Firms"
- 9:30-10:00 Sylvester E. Williams, IV, Elizabethtown College, "Should the FTC Need More Power to Correct Consumer Fraud Abuse?"
- 10:00-10:30 Break
- 10:30-11:00 Whitney C. Traylor, Metropolitan State College of Denver, "Law and Media: A Relationship Replete With Ethical, Social and Professional Problems"
- 11:00-11:30 Catharyn Baird, EthicsGame, "Ethics and Public Policy: Another Approach to the Health Care Dilemma"
- 11:30-12:00 Liz Stapp, University of Denver, "Teaching Students How to Identify 'Business Issues' when Drafting and Negotiating Contracts"
- 12:00-12:30 Sylvester E. Williams, IV, Elizabethtown College, "Some Best Practice Techniques Used in Teaching Business Law I Using Blackboard"

Cengage Learning and EthicsGame have made valuable contributions to subsidize our conference. Please take a moment to visit with their representatives to learn about their product offerings.